Hi Dave

I just wanted to give you some good feedback on our experience recently with Irene. My wife and I and our seven year old daughter spent two days with Irene in Late July. I left it really late to book a guide and I found your site useful as I didn't want a packaged tour as I have a phobia about organised tours and groups!

Despite the short notice Irene was able to take the somewhat sketchy brief I gave her and get back to me straight away with a fantastic itinerary which showed us the local transport, life and markets as well some of the traditional temples. She chose two great restaurants and we enjoyed her company at lunch. Irene was able to give us an insight into what issues matter to both young and old Thai people and this, along with her guiding skills, ensured we had a memorable two days. We managed to do a lot of things which we are all still talking about.

Most importantly Irene was willing and able to change the itinerary upon request and this allowed my wife to fit in some unplanned shopping and for all of us to spend more time travelling around Bangkok especially on the waterways which we like best.

I will certainly recommend Irene to any friends or people I know who are heading to Thailand especially if they have children as my daughter thought she was brilliant!

Kind Regards

Hi Irene

Thanks for the photo which is great.

Sorry for the delay in getting back to you with some comments (I have copied the comments I sent through to Dave to you as well). Getting back into the normal routine is something I never find easy after any overseas trip. We really did enjoy our time with you and Charlotte is not likely to forget you as really enjoyed your company. Even at Hua Hin at the Khao Takib temple she was still insisting on praying to Buddha and she told me the right way (the way you showed her) to do it which greatly amused the monks there.

We all have our highlights but for me the black water canal boats and the China town markets were great. Take care and thanks again for looking after us. I will contact you if we are back in Bangkok again re the Fishing Village trip and if you are ever coming to Sydney we would like to catch up and take you out for lunch at one of our favourite spots.

Kind regards
Peter, Marianne and Charlotte.
