Hello my friend,

How are you? I am getting so excited about our trip to China! Can you believe we are leaving this weekend! Beijing should be beautiful - I can't wait to see the history there.

I am just so sorry I will not see you in Shanghai. It would be so good to see you again. We will someday - I know it! I will have my daughter (youngest) Alice with me - and I have told her so much about you.

I hope you are doing well

Hugs! Jackie
